

ENGLISH

The English Department has enjoyed notable recent success at this level and is developing a range of exciting and engaging resources to help it deliver the new specification. The Department maintains a high standard of academic achievement and pupil engagement by providing the following:-

- opportunities for flexible teaching approaches;
- questions and tasks designed to enable candidates to demonstrate what they know, understand and can do;
- accessible and engaging lessons;
- opportunities for breadth of study and subject specific learning and knowledge;
- 'unseen' material for practice of analysis in external assessment;
- focused assessment of specific language skills;
- opportunities for producing extended writing;
- high-quality examination and resource material.
